THE TRAVELS AND ADVENTURES OF ESTYN OF THE HOUSE OF WOLFHEIM: BY DAVID SCHOENENBURG

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Slayer A4 Estyn wanted to be a tinker and inventor, instead of one of the Slayer special forces, and became a Master Tinker. But when her human master and the owner of the shop where she worked died of old age, his aging widow sold it, and Estyn applied for an assignment. She didn't have the commando training that the other Slayers did, but she got an assignment anyhow: The world of Torrid. (No, the other Slayers didn't tell her it was a steambath of a tropical world. But she found out when she stepped into it.) Once there, she found much that she could do to improve the lot of the citizens. Magic works, and there are two classes, those who have access to it, and those who don't. King Sutthvin (Quote: Sometimes I wish I were the King of somewhere else.) is trying to rebuild an organized civilization on the ruins of whatever went before, but he needs all the help he can get, and a slightly crazy Elf who's hard working and needs a job might be just the right person to help. The story takes place in and around the city of Dawgandar, the Kingdom capital. The judicial system is based on a somewhat creative evolution of the Code of Hamurabi or something similar, as Estyn finds out when she joins the City Guard. The city is multicultural, incorporating elements of ancient Greece, Rome, Egypt, the Phoenician states, and a few other places. Estyn begins tackling some problems that the locals either didn't notice or didn't want to, for the sake of justice, rewards, and to cut...
