Brand New Book  Print on Demand .British psychotherapist, Laura J Stephens, already had the living abroad tee-shirt, and believed that another intercontinental move, this time to a country where they spoke the same language, would be child s play. How wrong she was! This always candid and often humorous memoir demonstrates that things don t always go as expected - particularly with three kids in tow and an oft-absent husband. Setting up home in Houston placed Stephens in the eye of hurricane Ike, a frisky piano teacher and a crushing loss of identity as she came to terms with losing her hard won career. Unafraid to share the truth of the ensuing depression and her recovery, her story will offer expatriates and those who have suffered similar episodes hope and inspiration. Set against a dramatic Houston backdrop, readers will find a host of good ideas that foster resilience. Written with eloquence and raw honesty, Laura Stephen s insightful journey provides a rich resource for expatriates and others struggling with the challenges of a major life transition. Van Reken, author of Letters Never Sent, co-author, Third Culture Kids: Growing Up Among Worlds, co-founder, Families in Global Transition, Sometimes bumpy. Never maudlin. Apple Gidley, author of Expat Life Slice by Slice Stephens graciously takes us along on her downward spiral into depression, then details what helped as she makes her triumphant journey back.
