He not only teaches the law but explains the biblical basis for the law and provides practical guidance, including many new, innovative ideas. Robinson also explains how to avoid becoming a victim of discrimination. How can individuals determine whether they are a victim of discrimination, or instead, a victim of their own shortcomings? This book offers some valuable tips. Robinson utilizes religious sources to explain why discrimination is wrong and shows how following religious and legal principles will help employers prevent discrimination in the workplace and reduce their exposure to employee lawsuits.
