Excerpt: . and, not long after, that he was a white man. We now acted for some time the part that Robinson Crusoe and Friday went through when they saw each other. Then my friend would move very quickly and stop with a suspicious look; and then I again would do the same. At last I stood still, and my farmer friend walked up to me and said-- Good-day. Who are you? Good-day, I replied. You can t be a smous (pedlar), for your wagon is too small; nor a transport rider, for you have too good a jacket on; pray, who may you be? I am seeking souls that are lost---to bring them the blessed tidings of salvation. Oh, you are our Predikant! (minister). He reverently took off his hat (old man as he was), took my hand, and burst into tears. We have...
