 Paperback. 220 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Excerpt: Clearly, this would be the most fitting way. As Zach prepares to cast away the only copy of his newly finished book, a hint of irony collides with rationale, not unlike the jarring force of a blunt rotten two-by-four striking the back of his head. Had creating been this easy since the beginning Only a month earlier, he had begun writing what he considered a running tab on lifes day-to-day discreetly disclosed secrets, but more importantly, desires. Now, the only copy of those captured realizations on the face of the planet lay in print beside him, the original file deleted from existence. Eyes fixated on the road, Zach continues down what is essentially barely more than a dirt path through the jungle, driving ever closer towards the sea. Perhaps it would seem somewhat more of a sorrowful event if it werent for the whirlwind of fanciful ideas that were contained in the three-hundred pages of what seemed more like a journal than a novel. As it were, there was nothing Zach wished for more than to finish...
