

Remembering the Journey: The History of the Home Science Programme at the University of Ghana

By Charlotte Anokwa

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 282 x 218 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book chronicles the establishment of Ghana's first university degree program in home science. It brings to life the challenges and opportunities experienced through the evolution of a British model of domestic science to a more North American-oriented model of the discipline and profession of home economics. The result is a university degree rooted in the culture and family systems of Ghana. Set within the larger context of women's education in pre and post-independence Ghana, the book highlights the importance of the interface between the discipline and national development. The challenges of establishing such a program within a traditional university structure are illustrated, as well as the struggle to base the program in research on the needs of Ghanaian families. The book shines a light on the leadership styles and persistence of the first four department heads whose individual and cumulative achievements changed the course of home science/home economics in the country. The book covers the department's history from its beginnings in the late 1960s and the difficulties in designing appropriate curricula and...
