Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Chronological History of the Boston Watch and Police, From 1631 to 1865: Together With the Recollections of a Boston Police Officer, or Boston by Daylight and Gaslight, From the Diary of an Officer Fifteen Years in the Service The Author of this volume has been in the service of the Government of Boston as a Police Officer for the last fifteen years, and has many good reasons for feeling a deep interest in the history and welfare of his adopted city. Under this influence, and with opportunities offered through the courtesy of numerous friends, the writer has devoted much of his leisure time for some years past, in collecting material for a Chronological History of the Town and City of Boston; and although the collection is yet incomplete, it would now fill a large volume. From these records have been borrowed the materials that compose the Chronological History of the Boston Watch and Police. The work has been prepared with no little labor and care, and it is hoped will prove of interest and value. The duties of the Police Officer afford peculiar opportunities for the study of human nature; and the views of city life, by him witnessed, present a wide field not only for the pen of the novelist or critic, but also for the hand of the philanthropist and Christian. The writer has not been an idle observer in his police life; and during his long term of service, no day has passed that he has not made a note of some passing event. Many of these notes are of no value except perhaps, now and then, as matters of reference....
