Subscriptions are payable in advance; but the Magazine will be continued from year to year until orders are received to discontinue it; and such orders should be in all cases by letter, and not by returning the Magazine: and the last Post-Office address, and the name of the subscriber, should be distinctly given. EF One hundred Agents wanted for the Magazine, to whom liberal encouragement will be given. Any person who is disposed to engage in the work, and will send to the office his name, with satisfactory references, will be furnished with the proper testimonials. EF Tu Donors.--The issue of our Magazine is so large that it must go to press on the 6th of the month. If donations do not reach us by that date, their publication must be postponed until the next month. To the friends of the Society, and of the cause which it aims to promote. As it will be impracticable to send Agents to all the places where it is desirable that this Magazine should be circulated, we would earnestly request the Clergy having charges, to aid us in its circulation among their people, either by personal effort, or by such other means as they may deem most efficient. It is highly important to the best interests of the Society, and the cause which it aims to advance, that the...
