Can a Love-Story this unusual really happen This is an unusual love-story about a college sophomore student named Diamond, who is soon to marry her college sweetheart Hank. Hank is a senior student who is about to sign a multi-million dollar contract with a major NFL football team. Diamond's best friend, Sabrina, tells her that Hank is the biggest player around campus and it's not football he's playing. Sabrina doesn't want Diamond to make the worst mistake of her life being married to a professional athlete who cheats on her constantly. So Sabrina decides to introduce another man into the picture, who she feels is more perfect for her to marry instead of Hank. He is smart, single, no kids and soon he will open up his own practice in psychology to help others. His name is Damon and he gets Diamond's love life back together. As their relationship flourishes, Diamond is now put into this Love-Triangle relationship between Hank and Damon that is crazy and unusual. There is one surprise to the story. Which man is perfect...
